

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the week of April 7-13, 2014, is National Public Health Week, and the theme is “Public Health: Start Here” focusing on how public health is evolving to keep our community healthy and safe through these changing times in healthcare; and

WHEREAS, the City of Bismarck is committed to providing quality public health services to its citizens; and

WHEREAS, Public Health Week is a time to remind residents of the important and valuable services that the Bismarck-Public Health Department provides to this community; and

WHEREAS, strong public health systems are critical for sustaining and improving community health; and

WHEREAS, citizens of this community are encouraged to:

REINFORCE healthy practices in their lives by contacting Bismarck-Burleigh Public Health.

OBTAIN recommended health screenings, immunizations, and treatments that are available from Bismarck-Burleigh Public Health.

COMMIT to learning how public health departments positively impact their lives.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, John Warford, Mayor of the City of Bismarck, have the honor and pleasure of PROCLAIMING April 7-13, 2014, as

National Public Health Week

and encourage all citizens to observe this week by helping our families, friends, neighbors, co-workers and leaders better understand the value of public health and adopt preventive lifestyle habits in light of this year’s theme, “Public Health: Start Here.”.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and seal of this City of Bismarck this 7th day of April, 2014.

JOHN WARFORD, MAYOR
