MEDIA ADVISORY

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Bismarck Veterans Memorial Public Library Lobby Display: Native Art

WHAT:

Bismarck Veterans Memorial Public Library's current lobby display highlights Native art created by Native artists in the area. The works include digital art, paintings, fabric arts, and others. "We are grateful to the artists for sharing their artwork with the Library and community," stated Library Director Christine Kujawa. "The display allows patrons to learn about Native American culture, which is magnificently expressed through the art pieces." The Library is pleased to be able to share Native art with the community. The display will be open for viewing through the end of April.

WHEN:

Current through April 2021

WHERE:

Bismarck Veterans Memorial Public Library, Main Lobby

WHO:

Free and open to all. Media is invited to attend.
