September 11, 2001: The Day That Changed the World

WHAT:

The Bismarck Veterans Memorial Public Library is excited to announce its participation in “September 11, 2001: The Day That Changed the World”, a downloadable educational exhibition that presents the history of 9/11, its origins, and its ongoing implications through the personal stories of those who witnessed and survived the attacks. As told across 14 posters, this exhibition includes archival photographs and images of artifacts from the Museum’s permanent collection. It explores the consequences of terrorism on individual lives and communities at the local, national, and international levels. As well, it encourages critical thinking about the legacies of 9/11.

This 9/11 Memorial & Museum curated exhibition reflects the core pillars of commemoration, education, and inspiration as we prepare to observe the 20th anniversary of the 9/11 attacks.

The 9/11 Memorial & Museum developed this poster exhibition which is made possible in part by the National Endowment for the Humanities: Democracy Demands Wisdom. This exhibition’s views, findings, conclusions, or recommendations do not necessarily represent the National Endowment for Humanities.
