MEDIA ADVISORY

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Bismarck Veterans Memorial Public Library recognizes contributions of Library Workers

WHAT:

Bismarck Veterans Memorial Public Library workers play a critical role in meeting the needs of our community. April 6 is National Library Workers Day (NLWD), a time to recognize library professionals for their expertise and commitment to transforming lives and communities through education and lifelong learning. The day also reminds Bismarck that libraries of all types provide endless opportunities for engagement, enrichment and development.

To show appreciation for Bismarck Veterans Memorial Public Library staff and the work they do throughout the year, patrons are invited to “Submit a Star” by providing a testimonial about a favorite library employee at <http://bit.ly/librarystar>. Patrons are welcome to share stories on how library staff have an impact on their lives or community. Each testimonial will be posted in the “Galaxy of Stars” on the NLWD website at ala-apa.org/nlwd to honor library workers.

Established in 2003, National Library Workers Day (NLWD) celebrates the contributions of all library workers, including librarians, support staff and others who make library service possible every day. NLWD is held annually during National Library Week (April 4– 10) and is sponsored by the American Library Association-Allied Professional Association (ALA-APA).
