Kittyko in Concert at Bismarck Veterans Memorial Public Library

WHAT:

Join local musician Kittyko for a winter afternoon of music and dancing. All ages are welcome to attend.

ABOUT KITTYKO

Kittyko is a singer/songwriter, educator, and curriculum designer. Her CDs and recordings are used in schools throughout the country to integrate arts into core curriculum subjects. Her performances are lively, action-packed, and interactive--when Kittyko is on stage, she is often surrounded by children singing, dancing, and playing instruments. Kittyko operates Kittyko Music, a music instruction and tutoring studio where she teaches music lessons like you wish you had when you were a kid! The Kittyko Music curriculum includes essential music fundamentals, but it doesn't stop there—Kittyko Music is a multi-media experience! Kittyko holds a master's degree in education and instructional design & technology. She designs and develops supplemental online material for each of her students. Each student has his or her own web page, complete with songs written specifically geared toward the student's strengths and challenges.
