FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Bismarck Public Library Display: Bismarck-Mandan Three Crowns American-Swedish Association

WHAT:

Bismarck Public Library's current lobby display features a collection of Swedish items owned by the members of the Bismarck-Mandan Three Crowns American-Swedish Association. The display features pictures and items from the traditional Swedish holidays of Midsommer and St. Lucia, Swedish family heirlooms, Swedish linens, wood carvings and pewter, as well as books written by Swedish authors. The Three Crowns Association is a non-profit organized to promote interest and understanding of Swedish heritage. The club is open to anyone interested in Sweden or Swedish heritage. Many members are children or grandchildren of Swedes who immigrated to North Dakota. The club is celebrating their 40th anniversary in 2020. The display may be viewed through the end of September.

WHEN:

Current through September 2020

WHERE:

Bismarck Veterans Memorial Public Library, Main Lobby
