For immediate release:

Burleigh County Bookmobile to Place Little Free Library at General Sibley Park

General Sibley Park will be the home of a new Little Free Library, sponsored by the Burleigh County Bookmobile. The Little Free Library will be located just to the Southwest of the door to the Sibley office and will be stocked year-round with books for campers and park-goers of all ages. The Little Free Library will be installed with a ground-breaking ceremony on Friday, September 7 at 1:30 PM.

The Little Free Library at General Sibley Park is one of six Little Free Libraries placed by the Burleigh County Bookmobile at locations in rural Burleigh County. The purpose of the Little Free Libraries is to provide the residents of these locations with reading materials between Bookmobile visits and to help spread a love of reading among citizens of all ages. The other Libraries are located at the Wing Senior Center, Main Street in McKenzie, North Haraldson Lane in Apple Valley, and Santee Road in Lincoln. One additional Library will be placed at a location to be determined.
